69                     So as you can see here, this is basically my side-work as Student.
70                     I use Github to place Some of my college-programming stuff.
71                     Basically placed the file or the coding in there.
72                     I plan to grow my own channel on a platform called Youtube and last but not least,
73                     I too planned to be a seller on e-commerce Tokopedia.
74                     Make sure to check all 3 of them~ Big Thanks!
